

SUNDAY 12.5.19

17:30—19:00

Opening of the International Book Forum and the Writers Festival, 20192019 Jerusalem Prize Award Ceremony

At the end of the ceremony, a discussion, Between Friends: A Tribute to Amos Oz, will be held.

Following the presentation of the Jerusalem Prize to author Joyce Carol Oates (USA), a discussion in memory of Amos Oz between Prof. Fania Oz-Salzberger and State Attorney Shai Nitzan, will be moderated by Kobi Meidan.

YMCA Jerusalem

MONDAY 13.5.19

Events at Mishkenot Sha'ananim Cultural CenterEvents Throughout the City*18:00–20:00 We Parted Like This

Yair Agmon invites visitors to the Montefiore Windmill for personal conversations about legendary exes.
The Windmill

18:00–19:00 The Hazards of the Writing Journey

Joyce Carol Oates (USA), winner of the Jerusalem Prize, in conversation with Michal Govrin
De Botton Auditorium

15:30–17:00

"Fly on the Wall": A Series of Meetings Inspired by Amos Oz

Ayòbámi Adébáyò (Nigeria) in conversation with Dana Tal
Tmol Shilshom, Jerusalem

17:00–18:30 Writers Talk Art

A visit to the Wing for Jewish Art and Life with author Sarah Blau
The Israel Museum, Jerusalem

19:30–20:30

Fates and Furies

Zeruya Shalev and Lauren Groff (USA) in conversation with Tamar Merin
Djanogly Hall

19:00–20:00

Small Moments, Big Wars

Éric Vuillard (France) in conversation with Emmanuel Halperin
The Jerusalem Music Centre

19:00–22:00

Call Me by Your Name

André Aciman (USA) and Rana Werbin, film screening and discussion
Jerusalem Cinematheque

20:30–22:00 By Bread Alone

A literary-culinary event with Prof. Ariel Hirschfeld and David Kishka. Special guest: Tomer Ballas (Tomer's Bread)
Yael Garden

TUESDAY 14.5.19

17:30–19:00

Wandering Writers

Janan Bsoul in conversation with Ahmad Danny Ramadan (Syria/Canada), Lana Lux (Ukraine/Germany), and Itamar Orlev (Israel/Germany)
Djanogly Hall

18:00–19:00

"Fly on the Wall": A Series of Meetings Inspired by Amos Oz
A discussion on writing with Yael Neeman and Noga Albalach
Fostel Hall

18:00–20:00

We Parted Like This

Yair Agmon invites visitors to the Montefiore Windmill for personal conversations about legendary exes.
The Windmill

17:30–19:00

If I Forget Thee

A literary tour with Adi Keissar during which she will read her poems.

19:00–20:00 We Haven't Seen it All

David Grossman and Sjón (Iceland) in conversation with Prof. Evan Fallenberg
De Botton Auditorium

19:30–20:30 Writers Talk Art

Noa Yaron-Dayan and Prof. Nidaa Khoury in conversation with Linoy Bar-Geffen on the exhibit The Veiled Women of the Holy Land
Springer Auditorium
The Israel Museum, Jerusalem

20:00–22:00 The Order of the Day

Éric Vuillard (France) and Goel Pinto, film screening and discussion
Jerusalem Cinematheque

21:00–22:00 We Should Do It More Often

Berry Sakharof and Udi Sharabani in a literary-musical performance
Yael Garden

21:00–22:30 See Under: Love, A Play

A new directorial adaptation of David Grossman's masterpiece performed by students of the Nissan Nativ Acting Studio, Jerusalem
Beit Avi Chai, Jerusalem

WEDNESDAY 15.5.19

17:30–19:00

"Fly on the Wall": A Series of Meetings Inspired by Amos Oz
Orlan Morris in the footsteps of Amos Oz - the man, the author, and the symbol
The Little House

18:00–19:00

Farewell to Youth

Sharlene Teo (Singapore/UK) and Julia Fermento in conversation with Shifra Cornfeld
Fostel Hall

17:00–18:30

Writers Talk Art

Dr. Dory Manor at the exhibit The Wanderer (The Fine Arts Wing)
The Israel Museum, Jerusalem

17:30–19:00

Yehuda Amichai's Cats

A literary tour with Itamar Orlev

18:00–20:00

We Parted Like This
Yair Agmon invites visitors to the Montefiore Windmill for personal conversations about legendary exes.
The Windmill

18:30–19:30

Talking to Ourselves

Tal Nitzan and Andrés Neuman (Argentina/Spain) in conversation with Valerie Miles
Djanogly Hall

18:30–19:30

Opening of Sigalit Landau's exhibition Sea Stains

In the presence of the artist
Dwek Gallery

20:00–22:00

What's Really Bothering Portnoy?

Dr. Arik Glasner and Ayelet Gundar-Goshen, film screening and discussion
Jerusalem Cinematheque

20:00–23:00

Word Ball: A Multidisciplinary Cultural Event

The International Book Forum, "Barutina," and the International Writers Festival host an event that combines performance, music, discourse, writing, and introspection.
Jerusalem YMCA

19:30–20:30

Tell it to Lolita: Literature in the #MeToo Era

Authors Lana Lux (Ukraine/Germany), Ayòbámi Adébáyò (Nigeria), and Emilie Moatti in conversation with journalist Dana Spector
Yael Garden

20:30–21:30

1,001 Nights in Damascus

Ahmad Danny Ramadan (Syria/Canada) in conversation with Oshrat Kotler
De Botton Auditorium

THURSDAY 16.5.19

17:00–18:30

The Bicycle Boy

Bilha Ben-Eliyahu in conversation with Eli Amir and Ruth Cheshin
Guest Artist: Shem Tov Levy
De Botton Auditorium

18:00–20:00

We Parted Like This

Yair Agmon invites visitors to the Montefiore Windmill for personal conversations about legendary exes.
The Windmill

17:00–18:30

Writers Talk Art

Dror Mishani at the exhibit Manifesto (The Fine Arts Wing)
The Israel Museum, Jerusalem

19:30–20:30

Animals of Jerusalem

Meir Shalev and Shai Doron in conversation with Roni Kuban
De Botton Auditorium

20:30–22:00

A Little Birdie Told Me

The Tziporela Ensemble and Noa Menhaim host the festival's writers for a satirical evening featuring personal stories about love and legendary exes.
Yael Garden

20:00–22:00

Dancer in the Dark

Sjón (Iceland) and Ophir Touché Gafra, film screening and discussion
Jerusalem Cinematheque

THE INTERNATIONAL WRITERS FESTIVALMISHKENOT SHA'ANANIM, JERUSALEM